

Why and how is Erasmus going Digital?

University of Barcelona, October 2018

João Bacelar

About the EUF

Overarching purpose

Contribute to the modernisation of the EHEA through the betterment of student mobility

The network

- Ambitious and results oriented
- Focus on shaping EU policy
- Universities pooling ideas, expertise and contacts
- Working closely with governments, student organisations and EU institutions
- Offices in Luxembourg and Brussels

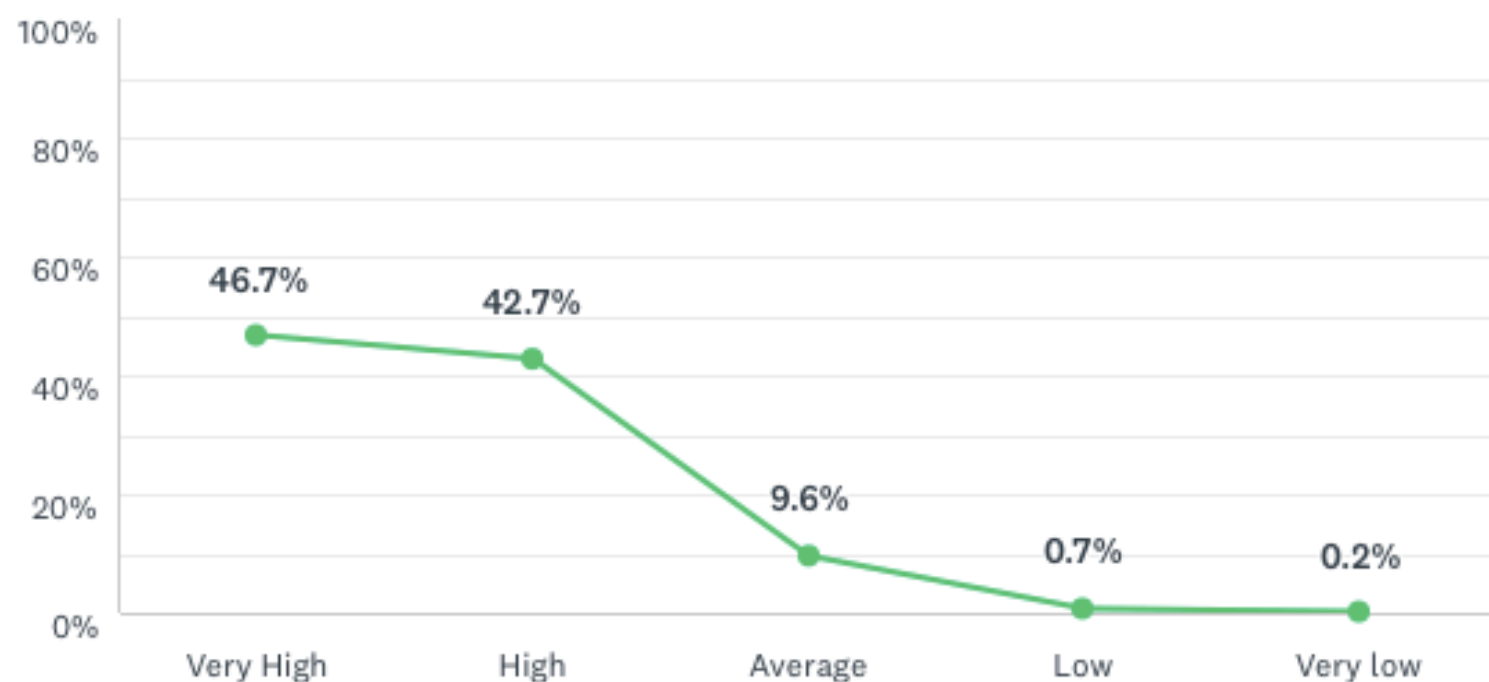

An alliance of universities
www.uni-foundation.eu

Unknown International Relations Officer, circa 2013

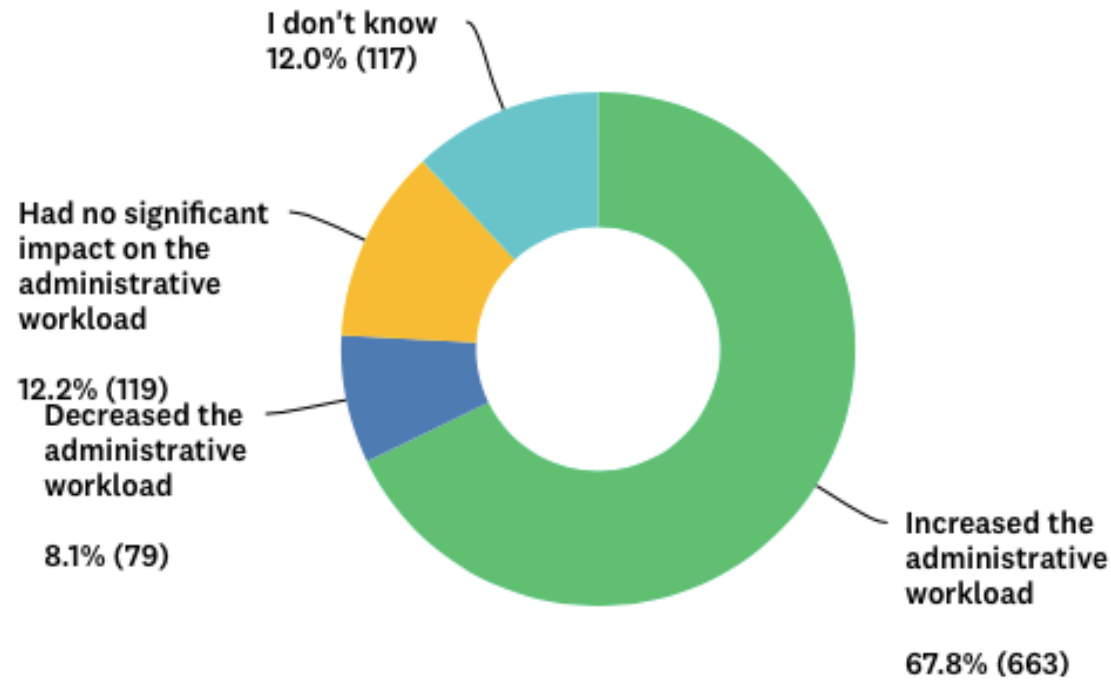

In your opinion, the workload surrounding the management of Erasmus+ exchanges is

Answered: 978 Skipped: 72

In your opinion, the changes introduced by Erasmus+ in 2014 have

Answered: 978 Skipped: 72

- Cumbersome student experience
- Unrewarding IROs jobs, high turnover and costs
- Negative impact on sustained growth of the programme

How could Erasmus 2.0 look like?

Single points of entry

Single points of entry

Connecting to EWP

A flexible approach

EWP Dashboard
Free and universal

EWP Network
Optional upgrade of
own IT tools

In the next 180 minutes...

Morning sessions

EWP for universities

- The network
- The dashboard
- Other providers
- Open Source Alliance

EWP for students

- App and OLA
- OLA for traineeships (new)
- EVA (new)

European Student Card initiative

Afternoon workshops

- Joining the EWP network
- Insider's guide to the EWP dashboard
- Rolling out the European Student Card
- Digital Erasmus: obstacles and opportunities

OLA+ project partners

EWP Project
partners

Erasmus+
App partners

Thank you for your attention!

João Bacelar

European University Foundation

Email: joao.bacelar@uni-foundation.eu

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

