

TRAINING:
STUDENT ADVOCACY SEMINARS

21st March 2019

Faculty of Interpretation and Translation
UAB Campus

PROGRAMME

10:30h	Welcome words - Màrius Martínez, UAB Vicerector for International Relations
10:35h	What is the UAB doing? Introduction to Programa Acollida - Laura Riba and Júlia Pérez - Project Managers
11:45h	Real experiences. Protecting academics at risk at the UAB: Mohammed J. - Iraqi refugee and researcher at UAB
11:00h	Coffee break
11:30h	Introduction to Scholars at Risk (SAR) - Adam Braver, Scholars at Risk
12:00h	Understanding what the Student Advocacy Seminars (SAS) - Adam Braver, Scholars at Risk
12:45h	The mechanics of the Student Advocacy Seminars - Adam Braver, Scholars at Risk
13:00h	Discussion / Q & A

More information on the SAS:

<https://www.scholarsatrisk.org/actions/student-advocacy-seminars/>

About Adam Braver:

*Adam Braver is the Director of Library Programming at Roger Williams University in Bristol, RI. In coordination with Scholars at Risk (SAR) and Roger Williams University, he serves as the Steering Committee Chair of the SAR-USA section, as well as coordinates SAR's Student Advocacy Seminar program. Braver also holds a joint appoint with the Department of English Literature and Creative Writing. He is the author of six novels (his seventh What the Women Do is forthcoming in July), and he also edits the Broken Silence series for University for New Orleans Press—books that focus on dissident voices.*